President Taft Probably Will Keep Hands Off Hoosier State Politics.

Washington, April 6.—While the White House today had nothing to say in regard to the attitude of Senator Beveridge toward the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, as expressed in his speech before the Indiana state convention yesterday, the utterance was the subject of considerable comment elsewhere in Washington.

It is believed that President Taft will let the Indiana situation severely alone, despite his championship of the tariff law at all times. When he recognized Beveridge as the head of the party in the Hoosier state he turned over to him absolutely the management of the campaign and gave him carte blanc as to the tariff.

Undoubtedly the president desired an endorsement of the Payne-Aldrich bill, but he relied on Beveridge to do the right thing for the party. It was reasoned that even insurgent Republican victory is better than total defeat.

While the regulars are today deploying the "insurgency of the Indiana platform, the insurgents and progressives are more than satisfied with the way Beveridge handled the matter.

"The people of Indiana are to be congratulated," said Senator Dolliver of Iowa. "Senator Beveridge now stands on the firing line of the battle which has become nation-wide, for the defense of public rights against the evil influence which are seeking to capture the government. His success will help every man, woman and child in Indiana regardless of politics."

Senator Clapp of Minnesota, one of the Republicans who voted against the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill in the senate, said: "That platform is to be especially recommended for its demand for a real tariff commission, and we believe we shall be able to pass a law creating such a commission."

Senator Bristow of Kansas, another insurgent, declared the platform represents faithfully the tariff plank in the national platform of 1908. Indiana Democrats, however, are sure that the Beveridge platform means success for the Democratic party in the fall campaign.

"I predict the next legislature will be Democratic by from 30,000 to 40,000," said Representative Cullop of the second Indiana district. "The platform of the Republican convention antagonizes every declaration on the subject of the tariff made by the party from its beginning. No self-respecting Republican can support that platform. Naturally the Democrats will be benefitted by the split in Republican ranks."

Woman Pedestrian Loses Wager Because Man Escort Quits Job

Miss Eleanor Sears, the society girl of Boston and Newport, who recently made a gallant although unsuccessful attempt to walk one hundred and eight miles from Burlingame to Delmonte, California, in fifty-five hours.

She gave up the tramp and lost a wager of $200 after she had completed sixty-six miles in twenty hours. And she wouldn't have given up either, if it had not been that a mean man who had agreed to be her pacer, declared after reaching the sixty-six mile-pace, that he had urgent business in San Francisco, and must hurry there.

So Miss Sears' chaperone indignantly refused to let her proceed further without a pacer. Back to San Francisco went the fair pedestrian, and that's the real reason of the start, the finish and the failure.
